Customer Reviews

This is a very cute story book teaching about listening to parents friendship asking for help & *the weather!! The illustrations are adorable. Though I am not sure why Larry the Bear did not get a name that starts with "B" and Mary the Sheep did not get a name that starts with "S" (maybe b/c Sammy the Snake and Sandra the Stork already got a name that begins with "S") This is a minor issue. I believe that this book needs a subtitle that would give away what the book is about. Choosing a meaningful subtitle would probably help parents to make the decision to buy. The story raises important questions and topics for young children.4 stars,Gisela Hausmann, author & blogger

The story kept my grandchildren so enthralled while I read. Franky just kept moving from one thing to another which reminded me of my grandkids. Having fun, Getting lost & making friends are subjects they can relate to.

Wish the pictures were on the same page for Kindle addition

It has a lot of interesting and exciting animal characters. My kids love the book.
