"Amazing work. This book has every riff I've ever wanted to play and more. Not only are you a good teacher, but a great author too. Thanks Drew for doing all the hard work for me." -Robert, Irvine
"This is probably the most fun I've ever had on ukulele. I can't wait for the next one." -Eli, Newport

Beach
"Andrew has to be one of the nicest guys i know as well as one of the best ukelele players ive seen. This book is a great example of his skills. i cannot get enough of these riffs and i'm only on page 14!!!" -Samantha K., Costa Mesa

"This book is a ton of fun. I really like how detailed each lick is and all the tips he tells you below each of them. Some of them are a little tough, but I know I can manage with a little more practice.. which wont be hard since it's so fun to play. My wife plays and is enjoying it as well. Thanks." -G.S., Miami

About the author: Andrew is a highly experienced, 5-star rated teacher and author. Living in Southern California, he teaches students guitar, bass, and ukulele locally as well as via skype. Customer Reviews

This is a good book for a beginner uke player who wants to try something besides strumming chords. There is only one riff, Tom Petty's Free Falling, that incorporates chords. The other riffs are fingerpicked, which gets you moving around the fretboard to locate notes. Hammer ons, pull offs, slides and bends are used sparingly and the author explains how to do them. Many examples are well known: the Beatles, the Rolling Stones, Led Zeppelin, Ozzy. And there are newer examples too. The familiarity is a good thing because the book is not in standard notation, so you don't know how long to hold each note. You will have to work from memory or pull up the song on YouTube or Spotify. Which is a good idea anyway.

This is a great book. This book instructs the reader on how to read tabs incase you are a beginner and then includes how to play riffs on a great selection of songs. Very fun and it will impress your party guests when you play the riffs!

Very simple riffs for some classic songs. This book will whet the appetite to learn more and take on more complicated riffs.

I love how easy this book is set up. I also like the song choices. Playing the ukulele makes me smile!
