Customer Reviews

I have no idea where this Author even had the idea that this book was good enough for anyone especially kids, to learn to crochet is beyond me. The book is five pages long, there are no pictures the explanations are practically non-existent and done so quickly that if you blink you will miss them. After the Author explains crochet, she then goes on to try to teach us how to make soap by downloading soap pamphlets, next how to make baby food, and next something about yogurt, and then quotes from the Bible. It would appear that these pamphlets are more important than crochet. I would not recommend this book to anyone, nor, does she get five cups of tea.
