Time management has been my problem ever since I was in my junior years. Usually, I procrastinate on things and ended up not getting it done. This is a great book to read, to the point, and helpful. The most important tip to take away from it is a matrix TO DO list. Focus on the important things, don't drown in the every-day little things. Still highly recommended by me, especially considering how little time it takes to read. This is a resource I intend to keep around for a long time.
