Customer Reviews

Looking to travel to Morocco in the next few months but didn't have any set itinerary. This book provided valuable information on what is truly necessary to know and see while there. There is nothing I've come across about Morocco that isn't in this book.

The Rough Guides speak my travel language. While waiting for their new guide to Morocco to be published I got a couple other travel guides to Morocco. They were good, but I was not really able to plan my trip until my Rough Guide arrived. Something about the writing, the priorities and the advice of the authors fit me just right. I always want to travel with Rough Guides as my source.I am an adventurous traveler. Prefer the road less traveled, and like to find hidden treasures. I travel low budget, but I like that the Rough Guides offer different budget options, in case I'm ready for a more upscale experience along the way.Recommended!
